Optimising the quality of life for people living with disability

ASDAN learning (Award Scheme Development Accreditation Network)

Rocky Bay's lifestyle, leisure and learning programme offers learning opportunities for people living with disability. These programmes are specifically designed to support positive outcomes for you, while developing skill-sets in your chosen area. You will work at your own pace and achieve an accredited qualification.

4 Learning areas:

Towards Independence

Provides a framework of activities to develop your personal, independent and social skills.

Towards Independence offers formal recognition of small achievements towards larger goals. You can select from more than 50 units to accumulate a record of personal achievement.

Workright

Focuses on 4 compulsory units to develop employability skill-sets such as being reliable, punctual, working as part of a team and completing tasks safely in a workplace.

Workright can be conducted at your school, training provider, alternate day service or workplace.

Life Skills Challenge

An online eLearning resource that allows you to personalise your learning journey in order to meet your individual needs.

Choose from a bank of online challenges that recognise your progress. There is no limit to the number of challenges you can complete while gaining recognition for your achievements.

Focus

Complete up to 12 units separately to build your profile of achievement.

Complete activities and gather evidence to demonstrate your progress and skill development in areas such as communication and numeracy, independent living, work related learning or sport and leisure.

Rocky Bay is recognised as a leading non-profit organisation delivering ASDAN programmes. These programmes are designed to offer a flexible educational framework.
