

 therapy and assistive technology

 leisure and independence

 home and community

 training and employment

Optimising the quality of life for people living with disability

ASDAN learning

(Award Scheme Development Accreditation Network)

Focus

Rocky Bay's lifestyle, leisure and learning programme offers learning opportunities for people living with disability. "Focus" comprises of 12 units that can be undertaken separately to create your profile of achievement.

Complete activities and gather evidence to demonstrate your progress and skill development in areas such as communication and numeracy, independent living, work related learning or sport and leisure.

Units cover:

There are 12 units available, each one focusing on a different area of skills development.

- Getting started
- Communication: introduction
- Communication: progression
- Horticulture
- Independent living
- Meal preparation and cooking
- Money
- Numeracy: introduction
- Numeracy: progression
- Using computer technology
- Using leisure time
- Using transport

Qualification

Accredited qualification is available for each unit.

Rocky Bay is recognised as a leading non-profit organisation delivering ASDAN programmes. These programmes are designed to offer a flexible educational framework.

For more information please call

Aideen Leahy, Site Coordinator

T: 9383 5178 | E: aideenl@rockybay.org.au

Kerry Walker, Team Leader

T: 9383 5137 | E: kerryw@rockybay.org.au

