Optimising the quality of life for people living with disability

Accommodation support

For more than 30 years Rocky Bay has supported people living with disability to prepare for and live in their own home.

We are able to offer individual tailored support to meet your needs, such as:

- Personal care to support your health and wellbeing e.g. assisting with your daily hygiene routine, attending appointments and managing medication
- Accessing community, social and leisure activities e.g. meeting and staying in touch with friends and family; going to the gym; attending sporting events, educational or social interest classes and groups
- Supporting you to attend your place of work
- Support to manage your finances and general household business e.g. managing bills; liaising with landlords regarding property repairs and maintenance
- Cooking, laundry and other household tasks

Our approach

We understand that everyone is different.

Our goal is to place you in control of services tailored to your unique circumstances and to support you to manage services to meet your changing needs.

We understand that you place great importance on reliable, well trained support staff. As a registered training organisation we ensure our employees undergo thorough training and that all clearances and references have been completed. You can be confident that the support you receive is of the highest standard.

Your Rocky Bay Team Leader will maintain regular contact with you to ensure your support needs are being fully met. They are there to supervise your support worker, listen and act on any concerns you may have.
